IRISH-AMERICAN CLUB WILL SOON HAVE NEW HOME

One of the Youngest of All the Great Athletic Organizations Has Come to the Front With a Rush.

HE Irish-American Athletic Club is negotiating for a new city club house. At Celtic Park, in Long Island City, the club has a good track-a fine place for athletic sports.

Everybody interested in athletics will be glad to see the Irish-Americans forge ahead. One of the youngest of the great athletic clubs in America, the Irish-American has come to the front with a rush during the past two years. The club had more point winners at Athens than any other, and has captured National championships at home. Martin Sheridan, Lawson Robertson, Harvey Cohn, Charlie Bacon, Melvin Sheppard, George Bonhag, Billy Frank, Dan Frank, Eller, Prinstein, Flanagan, McDonald, Keating, Myer, Sullivan, Cook, and a score of other athletes have carried the winged Tommy won his suit, and recovered the full amount claimed. He isn't overlooking anything. The testimony showed that Tommy boxed with four local men during the week, as well as his sparring partners.

"Do you remember Mike Flynn?" asked the counsel.

"I do," answered Tommy.
"I expect he remembers you," said the counsel.
